

Cargill Invests 4 Million in Emporia Kansas

Emporia Expansion

Cargill is excited to announce the next phase in our investment in our Animal Nutrition facility in Emporia, Kansas. We are now seeking approval for a 50,500 square foot warehouse expansion. This $4 million investment will greatly increase our shipping and receiving capacity at the facility. This expansion builds upon our growth in recent years. Since 2016, Cargill has invested significantly in equipment, improvements and new jobs, to meet the demand for increased production. This investment will take place on a five-acre parcel, adjacent to our existing facility. Emporia continues to be an important market location for Cargill, and we are pleased to continue to make investments in the region.
