Kansas City is home to a very supportive Korean community. This reference guide is meant to highlight opportunities to find and build community in our region. While not comprehensive, this serves as a great starting point. We hope you feel at home here, and encourage you to explore these available resources, amenities and opportunities.

There are 3,666 people in the Korean community in the KC MSA, and 3,159 of these individuals identify as being native to South Korea. (Source: U.S. Census, 2019)

Looking to find the Korean Community in KC? [View this map.]

Local Organizations:

- Korean American Society of Greater Kansas City
- Kansas City Korean Language Institute
- National Association of Asian Professionals: Kansas City
- Mid-America Asian Culture Association
- Asian American Chamber of Commerce of Kansas City
KC offers a large number of diverse religious and spiritual communities. Whatever your denomination or affiliation, you are sure to find a community that offers fellowship, friendship and the opportunity to worship.

Feel at Home:

Kansas City Korean Journal | Established in 2010 to local and international news and events, this monthly publication is sent to 14+ locally owned Korean and Asian American businesses around the region.

Oriental Super Market | Located in Overland Park, this store is known as the best majority Korean grocer in the region.

Joong-Ang Oriental Groceries | You’ll find an epic selection of Korean candy, food and more here.

888 International Market | You’ll find a dizzying array of grocery staples, baked goods, both locally grown and imported produce, fresh seafood, fish and more.

Chosun Korean BBQ | Individual grills at each table ensure a unique, personal experience for all.

KoKoDAK Chicken | Traditional Korean style fried chicken takes the gold medal here.

Gangnam Korean Restaurant | No-frills eatery with a wide array of traditional Korean fare.