Kansas City is home to a very supportive Vietnamese community. This reference guide is meant to highlight opportunities to find and build community in our region. While not comprehensive, this serves as a great starting point. We hope you feel at home here, and encourage you to explore these available resources, amenities and opportunities.

There are 7,924 people in the Vietnamese community in the KC MSA, and 5,002 of these individuals identify as being native to Vietnam. (Source: U.S. Census, 2019)

Looking to find the Vietnamese Community in KC? View this map.

Local Organizations:

Vietnamese American Community of Greater KC

Dai Hoi Thanh Mau - Marian Days

Mid-America Asian Culture Association

Asian American Chamber of Commerce of Kansas City

National Association of Asian Professionals: Kansas City
KC offers a large number of diverse religious and spiritual communities. Whatever your denomination or affiliation, you are sure to find a community that offers fellowship, friendship and the opportunity to worship.

Taste of Home:

Hung Vuong Market | The go-to spot for hard-to-find authentic Vietnamese grocery items, located in the River Market.

888 International Market | You’ll find a dizzying array of grocery staples, baked goods, both locally grown and imported produce, fresh seafood, fish and more.

Little Saigon Plaza | Located in north KC, Little Saigon Plaza is a hub for a variety of Vietnamese restaurants, groceries and more.

Xugen Vietnamese Cafe | Restaurant and market with authentic food, tea and coffee offerings.

Bun Mee Phan | Authentic Vietnamese Banh Mi and Banh Tieu sandwiches in north KC.

Vietnam Cafe | Casual, pint-size institution serving up hefty portions of pho and other Vietnamese specialties.